Experience

Caffè Vergnano

Rome, Italy

Part-time Barista

Sep. 2021 - Present

- Working part-time as a barista at Caffè Vergnano, one of the most renowned Italian coffee franchise. Mainly tasked to prepare coffee, maintain a clean and organized workspace, and operate cash registers. Moreover, I actively reflect on my academic training by keeping track of effects of managerial decisions regarding organization, communication and innovation.

Projects

People and Things: Economic Exchange and Consumption as a System of Social Relations

July 2022

- Bachelor's thesis on the relationship between cultural anthropology and economics, exploring how anthropology can help understand the different cultural meanings that people give to things in the world and how economic practices are inevitably embedded in social institutions and culture.
